Team,

This is to clarify an issue regarding EIC applications from college students who reside in Texas and hold out of state DL/ID. Apparently one of our offices advised an out of state college student they would have to surrender their (out of state) DL to obtain an EIC.

Students who live in Texas but hold an out of state DL/ID are NOT required to surrender their out of state license when they apply for an EIC.

One of the seven forms of acceptable ID for voting is a Texas DL, an out of state DL is not one of them. The out of state student may keep their DL AND get an EIC.
